To Whom It May Concern

This is certify that with the financial support from The Royal Danish Embassy, Non-Governmental Development Organization NOWZUWAN carried out an important task in raising awareness among local people of five sub distracts of Rangamati Hill Tracts on conventional laws, fundamental rights and general laws. The project entitled ``Enforcement of Local institutional Laws focusing public awareness through sustainable good governance approach (ELFoS) in CHT under implementation by NOWZUWAN completed the work in the duration of six years (July 2009 to May 2012 for 1st phase and July 2013 to June 2016 for 2nd phase).

Under the project NOWZUWAN had published in Bengali version booklets on Hill Tracts treaty and laws made up in the light of the treaty CHT Regional Council, 1998 Hill Tracts Districts Council (amended) law,1998 etc. in pursuance of the aims and objectives of the project. NOWZUWAN implemented activities like: Community group discussion on time old conventional rules and customs, which included power and activities of king (Raja), Headman, Karbaris and others issues. Concerning issuance of citizen award by officers in charge of sub district administration and public welfare activities performed by public organization successfully. People of the concerned area have benefited through the successful implementation of the project.

We wish NOWZUWAN success and achievement in its future endeavors.

Yours sincerely,
